Programs of Study

C.C.B. School of Atlanta's Intensive English Program (IEP) is structured so that the students become comfortable using English in all environments, including academic, professional, and social settings. There are 12 IEP levels at the moment, and more are scheduled to open upon demand.

Intensive English Program (IEP)

Level 1: Beginning Literacy	Level 8: High Advanced
Level 2: Low Beginner	Level 9: Professional I
Level 3: High Beginner	Level 10: Professional II
Level 4: Low Intermediate	Level 11: Bilingual I
Level 5: Intermediate	Level 12: Bilingual II
Level 6: High Intermediate	Advanced I
Level 7: Low Advanced	Advanced II

In addition to the Intensive English Program, we also provide TOEFL Preparation classes for students who are planning to attend universities in the United States.

Private Tutoring and One-To-One Conversation Sessions can also be arranged to satisfy each student's individual needs.

Please consult one of our student advisors for a tailored program that suits your need!

Admission Procedures

For all students, after submitting a complete application, all required documents, and the appropriate fees, the student will be notified of acceptance into the school. If they are accepted, the student must take the placement exam at the school before beginning the course of study. Different documentations and fees due depend on the type of student (international, transfer, etc.)
